Diamonds & Rust to Collect Clothing, Accessories for Suited for Change

New Drop-Off Site to Serve Loudoun, Fairfax and Western Counties

ALDIE, Va., July 13, 2009 — Diamonds & Rust Enterprises, Inc., an Aldie antiques and collectibles shop, will collect women's professional business clothing and accessories starting August 1 through September 30 for Suited for Change (SFC). Based in Washington, SFC provides professional clothing and ongoing career and life skills education to low-income women for job interviews. Donations may be dropped off at Diamonds & Rust, 39333 John Mosby Hwy., Aldie, Va. (Rte. 50, six miles east of Middleburg). Hours: Monday – Saturday, 11 a.m. – 5 p.m. SFC web site: <http://www.suitedforchange.org/>.

"We look forward to great success partnering with Suited for Change again, now that we've established a presence in Aldie," said Diamonds & Rust Owner Marcia Hall, who previously collected for SFC in her former Chantilly location. "Especially in this economy, it's a great opportunity to support low-income women while letting more people know about our shop," she said.

Requested donations include (full list at <http://www.suitedforchange.org/attire.html>):

- Suits (especially in sizes 16+ and 2)
- Blazers
- Dresses
- Slacks
- Skirts
- Blouses
- Coats
- Shoes (especially in wide sizes and in sizes 9+)
- Boots (winter months only)
- Purses and Briefcases
- Jewelry
- Belts
- Scarves
- New, unopened hosiery (especially sizes Queen and above in black, off black, and all skin tones)

Diamonds & Rust cannot accept:

- Sweaters
- Bathrobes
- Slippers
- Evening attire
- Holiday attire
- Casual attire (including Casual Friday)
