After a lengthy job search, Brenda returned to the Suited for Change boutique and said our favorite words: “I got the job!”

As she walked out of the dressing room in an ivory suit, Brenda looked more prepared than ever to begin the next chapter of her professional career. While posing for the camera, Brenda said, “I can’t wait for my daughter to see me in these outfits!”

Thanks to your support in our mission, Brenda now has the clothing and confidence to walk into her first day of work with her head held high.

This year we have been diving deeper into our professional development workshops and furthering our relationships with our referral partners, this time with Friendship Place!

We had such a wonderful time in these workshops, and we cannot wait to see each of the Friendship Place participants at the SFC boutique to get the professional clothing they need to give them that extra boost in confidence!
Suited for Change had the incredible honor to be featured on NBC News4 and share the impactful story of one of our clients: Tiyika.

Back in 1997, Tiyika walked through the door of the SFC boutique. Like so many of our clients, Tiyika needed an extra boost to get her professional career started.

Twenty-four years later, she now works as a history teacher in PG County and after the brunt of the pandemic she reached out to SFC once again, but this time to give back to other women as a donor.

Thank you to Molette Green and everyone at NBC News4 for spreading our mission to empower women along their professional journey!

We had the great pleasure of welcoming Alyssa from Sandy Spring Bank to the Suited for Change boutique as she presented a check from their “Casual for a Cause” Program.

We are so grateful for their support in our mission as we continue to empower the women in our community as they strive toward financial independence.
