LIZA

Suited for Change Client

www.suitedforchange.org

@suitedforchange

After being out of the workforce for several years to raise her five children, Liza was ready to get back to work.

That's where Suited for Change stepped in.

Soon, Liza sent us an email to share with us her wonderful news: she is now working at the United States Postal Service!

MEET MARGARET

I EMPOWER LOCAL WOMEN

"I volunteer because I appreciate the respect that SFC extends to each client and how each and every one is heard, valued and celebrated. When combined with the professional attire and coaching offered to each client, SFC provides a foundation for the attainment of financial independence with dignity and self-respect."

MARGARET WALSH

SUITED FOR CHANGE VOLUNTEER

This month, we are highlighting Margaret, one of Suited for Change's dedicated volunteer stylists!

THE WASHINGTON POST

IN THE NEWS WITH

The Washington Post

AMY, SARINA, BARBARA, AND MARGARET,
SUITED FOR CHANGE VOLUNTEERS

Volunteering is at the heart of Suited for Change. Without our vibrant, dedicated, and professional volunteers, we would not be where we are today.

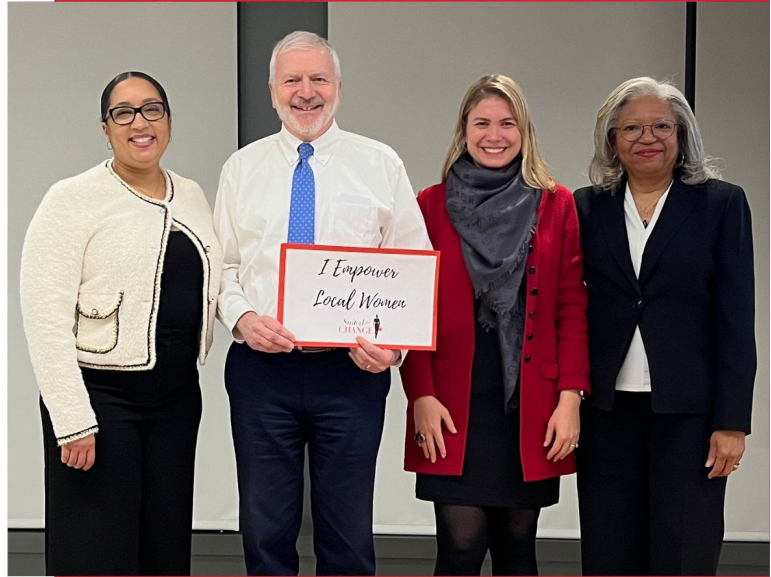

In the spirit of giving, The Washington Post published an article recently highlighting 25 nonprofit organizations that are great avenues to give back to the DC community – including Suited for Change!

PARTNER SPOTLIGHT

BUSINESS ROUNDTABLE

THANK YOU

Suited for Change was honored to be selected to speak at Business Roundtable's Colleaguesgiving event on November 17th and spread the word of our mission to empower the women in our community.

Not only did Business Roundtable host a clothing drive to collect professional attire for our clients, but they also made a generous donation of $5,000 to help us further empower the women in our community.

CHANGEMAKERS EVENT

THE CATALOGUE FOR PHILANTHROPY

THANK YOU

In celebration of The Catalogue for Philanthropy's 20th anniversary, they brought back their Changemakers event to showcase the incredible work being done by various nonprofits in our community.

Held at Planet Word, a new immersive language museum in the heart of Washington DC, the event was packed with tables from local nonprofits sharing their mission with one of a kind interactive games!
